Answers on Aging

Resource Guide 2021-2022

The Larimer County Office on Aging (LCOA), located in the Department of Human Services, is the Area Agency on Aging (AAA) for Larimer County. As one of 16 AAA's in Colorado, LCOA receives funding from the Federal Older Americans Act and the Older Coloradans Fund to provide services to Larimer County residents who are 60 and older, and to serve as the lead agency in planning and coordinating those services. As part of the LCOA, the Aging and Disability Resources for Colorado (ADRC) also serves adults over the age of 18 living with a disability.

With Older Americans Act and Older Coloradans funds, the LCOA funds community partners to provide a range of programs. These programs provide older adults, particularly those vulnerable older adults at risk of losing their independence, with supportive services and opportunities to enhance their health and wellbeing while remaining independent in their own homes.

Social Security and Supplemental Security Income

Social Security Disability Programs

Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) are both federal programs that provide cash payments to people who meet the federal definition of “disabled.”

SSI is designed to meet the basic needs of elderly, blind, and disabled individuals who would otherwise have a hard time paying for food and shelter. SSI has very strict financial requirements, making it what is known as a “means-tested” benefit. The monthly benefit for SSI in Colorado is $794. Typically a person who receives SSI immediately qualifies for Medicaid benefits.

SSDI is a program that is typically available to any person who meets disability eligibility and has paid into the Social Security system for a least ten years, regardless of that person’s current income and assets. Since SSDI is based on the beneficiary’s earnings record, SSDI benefits vary widely when it comes to the amount of money provided. The average benefit in 2021 was $1,277 per month. If an individual’s SSDI benefit is less than the SSI benefit ($794), that individual may also be eligible for SSI benefits. SSDI beneficiaries are eligible to receive Medicare 24 months after they are deemed eligible for SSDI benefits.

To apply for SSI and SSDI please contact your local Social Security office to make an appointment:

Home Health Care Agencies

Home care helps make it possible for people to remain at home rather than use residential, long-term, or institutional-based nursing care. In Colorado, home care agencies are required to be licensed and there is a distinction between “home health care” and “home care” agencies.

Home Health Care Agency – medical home care services are provided by registered nurses, certified nursing assistants, physical, speech, and occupational therapists, social workers, and dietitians. Services may include medical or psychological assessments, wound care, medication management, pain management, disease education, physical therapy, and speech and occupational therapy.

Home Care Agency – non-medical home care services are provided by home care aides and certified nursing assistants. Services may include assistance with shopping, companionship and supervision, house cleaning, and errands as well as activities of daily living (ADLs) such as bathing, eating, hygiene, dressing, and ambulation.

The Colorado Department of Public Health & Environment is responsible for the licensing and monitoring of both the medical and non-medical home care agencies in Colorado.

Assisted Living Homes

An assisted living community is a care option that combines housing and support services. Assisted living is designed for individuals who require assistance with everyday activities such as meals, medication management, bathing, dressing, and transportation.

Most assisted living communities determine the monthly rate based on levels of care. Facilities assess each resident and the assessment generally uses a point system based on activities of daily living (ADLs); bathing, dressing, grooming, mobility, continence, eating, medication management, and laundry. A resident that needs assistance with several ADLs will have a higher monthly rate than a resident who is more independent.

Memory Care: Some assisted living communities specialize in dementia and Alzheimer's care and can provide more assistance in ADLs such as mobility, incontinence and other challenges associated with dementia and Alzheimer's.

The assisted living communities that only provide memory care are noted below as "memory community." The assisted living communities that have a designated "memory care unit" are noted below as "memory unit."

Independent Living Communities

Independent living is housing designed exclusively for seniors, generally those aged 55 and over. Residents live independently in apartments or freestanding homes. Most communities offer activities and services that give seniors the opportunity to connect with peers. Other services offered may include beauty and barber salons, daily meals, basic housekeeping, and laundry services. Independent living facilities are aimed at older adults who need little or no assistance with activities of daily living such as bathing, dressing, and mobility and they do not provide any medical care. As with regular housing, you can hire in-home help separately if necessary.

Long Term Care Medicaid

Includes nursing facility care and Home and Community Based Services (HCBS) (where medical providers come into the home or assisted living community to render the necessary services to keep a disabled individual from being institutionalized in a nursing facility or hospital). To apply for Long Term Care Medicaid, please mark the medical assistance box on the application.

Disability Eligibility:

Individuals under the age of 65, requiring long-term care services, must meet the Social Security disability criteria either through Social Security Income (SSI) eligibility or Social Security Disability Income (SSDI) eligibility. If you are under the age of 65 and have not been determined disabled by the Social Security Administration, you must also complete the Medicaid Disability application. For a copy of the application, please call (970) 498-6300.

Income Eligibility:

- The 2021 income limit is $2,382 per month. For those individuals who are not hospitalized, an income trust can be established if one’s gross income exceeds $2,382 per month. There are limits for the income trust which are dependent on which county the applicant resides.

Only the individual applicant’s income is considered in the eligibility determination. The applicant spouse’s income is not considered for eligibility.

Resource Eligibility:

- The individual resource limit is $2,000.
- The couple resource limit is $4,000 if both members of the marital couple are applying for long-term care benefits and they are sharing the same room in a nursing facility or if both are going to receive Home and Community Based Services.
- The couple resource limit is $3,000 if both members of a marital couple are applying for long-term care benefits and are living in separate rooms in a nursing facility.
- The 2021 couple resource limit is $130,380 if one member of the couple is applying for long-term care services and the other spouse is not applying for Medicaid and is not institutionalized.

Level of Care Eligibility:

Options for Long Term Care, the Single Entry Point (SEP) in Larimer County, evaluates Medicaid long term care applicants to determine if their medical condition qualifies them to receive long term care services. This approval, in addition to financial approval, is necessary for eligibility.

Medicaid (continued)

Additional Eligibility Requirements:

- Applicants of Long Term Care Medicaid cannot transfer assets for less than fair market value within five years of the date of application. If any transfers were made the applicant may be ineligible for long-term care services for a period of time.
- If the applicant remains living in their principal place of residence then that residence, household goods, furniture, care, and an irrevocable burial or funeral plan is exempt. If the applicant is moving to an assisted living/nursing home community and there is no spouse living in the principal place of residence, then that residence may be considered an asset.

Medicare

Medicare is a health insurance program for people 65+, those under age 65 with qualifying disabilities or any individual with end-stage renal disease. You MUST apply for Medicare benefits the month before you turn 65. Exceptions may apply as to when to enroll if you have other qualifying healthcare such as health insurance benefits from an employer. If you do not apply or do not have other qualifying health insurance coverage, penalties may apply when/if you do apply for Medicare benefits.

For more information, please visit the website: <https://www.medicare.gov>.

Medicare Supplemental Insurance

There can be gaps in your original Medicare (Part A and Part B) coverage such as co-payments, coinsurance and deductible costs that you are often responsible for paying. Medicare Supplemental Insurance serves as an enhancement to original Medicare by filling in those coverage gaps. These plans may be purchased through private insurance companies and have monthly premiums. The best time to purchase/enroll in a Medicare Supplemental Insurance plan is during the open enrollment period (OEP), which is six months long, beginning on the first day of the month in which you turn age 65. You have a guaranteed issue right to purchase a Medicare supplemental policy during your OEP period which means, the insurance company may not review your medical history and the potential risk level it may or may not represent if you are in the OEP period. If you purchase a Medicare supplemental policy after the OEP period, your approval and monthly premium will be subject to your medical history and potential risk level; you may be denied coverage or incur higher plan costs because of pre-existing health issues.

Medicare Long Term Care Benefits

Medicare DOES NOT PAY for the cost of long-term nursing home care, assisted living home care, or long term in-home care. Medicare does pay for some short-term rehabilitative services in a nursing home or at your home in the community under your Part A benefit after a qualifying hospital stay. When you are hospitalized, it is important to know your admission status; is your stay in the hospital classified as being under observation or were you admitted as an inpatient? For a qualifying Medicare hospital stay you must be admitted to the hospital and a qualified hospital stay does not apply if you are in the hospital for observation.

For a complete list of Medicare benefits visit medicare.gov or call (800) 633-4227.

Medicare Advantage Plans

If you enroll in a Medicare Advantage Plan (sometimes called “Part C” or “HMO plan”), you still have Medicare, but your plan’s benefits may differ from original Medicare. Advantage plans cover all of the Medicare services but for example, your co-pay, coinsurance, and number of rehab days may not be the same as original Medicare. Medicare Advantage Plans can charge different out-of-pocket costs and have different rules for how you get services, such as when you need a referral to see a specialist, or if you are required to only see “network” doctors, which skilled nursing and rehab facilities are in the plan, or which suppliers you can use that belong to the plan. Medicare Advantage Plans may also offer extra coverage. If you need help determining whether or not an Advantage plan is right for you, please contact the local State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP) office for assistance.

For more information or assistance on Medicare plans and benefits, please contact the local State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP) listed below:

What are the different parts of Medicare?

Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance)

You usually don't pay a monthly premium for Part A coverage if you or your spouse paid Medicare taxes while working. If you did not pay Medicare taxes, you can buy Part A coverage and pay a monthly premium. Part A benefits include:

- Inpatient care in hospitals
- Skilled nursing facility care (for rehab services)
- Hospice care
- Home health care

Medicare Part B (Medical Insurance)

The standard Part B premium amount in 2021 is $148.50 for beneficiaries with incomes at or below $88,000 for an individual taxpayer, $176,000 for a married couple filing jointly (the premium is based on your income). In 2021, the deductible for Part B is $203. Social Security will notify you regarding the exact amount you will pay for your Part B premium. Please note that effective in 2020 as a result of legislation passed in 2019 by Congress, Medigap plans will no longer be allowed to offer coverage of the Medicare Part B deductible. Part B benefits include:

- Services from doctors and other Health care providers
- Outpatient care
- Home health care
- Durable medical equipment
- Some preventative services

Medicare Part C (Medicare Advantage)

- Managed by Medicare-approved private insurance companies
- Includes all benefits and services covered under Part A and Part B (some copayments and deductible may vary, and you may be required to use in-network providers)
- Usually includes Medicare prescription drug coverage (Part D) as part of the plan
- May include extra benefits and services for an extra cost

Medicare Part D (Medicare prescription drug coverage)

- Managed by Medicare-approved private insurance companies
- Helps cover the cost of prescription drugs
- May help lower your prescription drug costs and help protect against higher costs in the future (if you do not enroll in a Part D plan when you become eligible for Medicare benefits and enroll at a later time, you will be subject to penalties and your premiums will be higher.)

Colorado Property Tax Deferral Program

(970) 498-7020

Larimer County Treasurer's Office

The senior and military tax deferral program is offered by the state of Colorado. It allows you to postpone your tax payments until you sell your property, or your estate is settled after your death. Interest is applied to the amount you defer. You can defer either the whole amount of your taxes, or half of your taxes. The Larimer County Treasurer's Office collects the information and sends it to the state of Colorado who manages the program, makes all of the decisions, and then notifies the county treasurer who has been approved or disapproved.

Eligibility requirements:

- Applicant must be 65 years or older on or before January 1 of this year or be a person called into military (activated guard or reserve) service as of January 1 of the year in which the person files a claim. You cannot be earning income from the property (i.e. renting the property) but you can have a home office. If your property is in a trust, you must be named as the trustee and the beneficiary of the trust. (Most trusts are not set up this way)
- All prior years' property taxes must be paid
- Applicant must own and occupy the property as their primary residence
- If a qualified applicant has a reverse mortgage, the property is only eligible for future deferrals if a subordination agreement from the mortgage lender is submitted with the application.
- The completed application must be returned to the Treasurer's Office no later than the close of business (4:30pm) April 1.
