- Submitting department changes
- Experimenting with FairEntry

Next Steps
- Finding judges
- Replacing missing or expired sponsorships
- Finding volunteers and building coordinators
- Contacting and scheduling groups for the Action Exhibits

Accomplishments
- 2 Departments needed a new superintendent: Baked Products and Quilting
- Getting feedback from superintendents
- Adding classes to accommodate more woodworking projects
- Starting to work on marketing plans
- Condensing departments
- Creating succession plans for superintendents
Our Biggest Needs

- Mission reevaluation
- Volunteer program to support Open Class
- Community Support: Sponsors, promotion, volunteers, etc.
- How do we make Open Class relevant and sustainable?

EXTENSION SHOWCASE FEEDBACK

- Possibly change the day of the week to attract more legislators
- Plan seating detail – who sits where
- Does December work or hold it prior to elections
- What is the purpose and what are we hoping for the outcome
- More staff give presentations
- Information on how the programs and the results are connecting
- Develop goals of showcase – what works.
- Dessert table ... let folks choose.

COMMUNITY ASSESSMENT

- Purpose to discover wants, needs and awareness of Extension
- Partnering with IRISS (Institute for Research in the Social Sciences) at CSU and a senior level sociology class
- Information is available from Community Assessment on Google Drive
- May 14 – Kerri and Kathy invited the Extension Advisory to the culminating event of the sociology class, who will share their findings at 6:00pm at the Larimer County Courthouse
- Irene Romsa said the City of Fort Collins is great with Community Assessments. Spanish speaking communities become involved too.
- It was suggested to contact groups for their community resources, i.e. Waverly, Buckeye, etc.

BY-LAWS

- An updated set of Larimer County Extension Advisory Committee By-Laws were reviewed once more before the final adoption on May 1st.
EXTENSION BUDGET

- The Larimer County Extension budget for 2019, along with budget actuals from prior years was shared and discussed with Extension Advisory members.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:00am.

The next meeting is scheduled for May 1 from 8–10am at the Larimer County Extension Office.
