

Be High-Water Ready

FEMA High Water Mark Initiative

On the 4th anniversary of the 2013 Flood, Larimer County, Loveland and Fort Collins will host public events to unveil the new high water mark signs.

VIEW LOOKING NORTH

View from the patio at Fort Collins Museum of Discovery looking north toward the Poudre River. This facility was protected from flood damage by building outside of the mapped floodplain.

Saturday, Sept. 9

10 a.m.

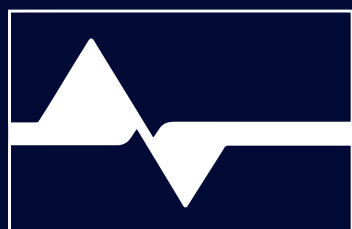

LARIMER COUNTY

Sleepy Hollow County Park

2131 W. Highway 34

Estes Park, CO 80515

(Big Thompson Canyon, eastbound lane, south pull-off)

City of Loveland

1 p.m.

CITY OF LOVELAND

Fairgrounds Park

700 S. Railroad Ave.

Loveland, CO 80537

3 p.m.

CITY OF FORT COLLINS

Fort Collins Museum of Discovery

408 Mason Ct.

Fort Collins, CO 80524

Auxiliary aids and services are available for persons with disabilities.

FEMA

As part of the National Flood Insurance Program, the FEMA High Water Mark Initiative is a community-based awareness program to educate residents about flood risk.