SENIOR PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION
Title 39, Article 3, Part 2, Colorado Revised Statutes

The homestead exemption for qualifying senior citizens is available to: a) all residents 65 years of age or over who are the surviving spouses of seniors who previously qualified. The three basic requirements are: 1) the surviving spouse must be at least 65 years old on January 1 of the year in which he or she qualifies; 2) the surviving spouse must be the owner of record, and must have been the owner of record for at least ten consecutive years prior to January 1; and 3) the qualifying senior must occupy the property as his or her primary residence, and must have done so for at least ten consecutive years prior to January 1.

In 2003, the Legislature temporarily suspended funding for the senior exemption program. Funding is scheduled to return for assessment year 2006, payable 2007. When it does, the exemption will reduce the actual value of your residential property by 50 percent up to a maximum reduction of $100,000. The state pays the tax on the exempted value. Qualified individuals must file an application for exemption no later than July 15.

Applications are available from your county assessor. (An applicant or married couple can apply for the exemption on only one property. That property must be the primary home or place of abode of any one of the applicants, or by the surviving spouse as defined in section 1-2-102.)

Eligibility Requirements
Qualifying Senior:
1) The surviving spouse must be at least 65 years old on January 1 of the year in which he/she qualifies; and
2) The surviving spouse must be the owner of record, and must have been the owner of record for at least ten consecutive years prior to January 1; and
a. The property can be held by the surviving spouse alone, or by the surviving spouse together with his/her spouse, or by the qualifying senior together with other individuals.
b. Title to the property can be held individually, as joint tenants, or as tenants in common. The qualifying senior can also hold a life estate in the property.
c. Owner of record means an individual whose name appears on a valid recorded deed to residential real property as an owner of the property.
3) The qualifying senior must occupy the property as his/her primary residence, and must have done so for at least ten consecutive years prior to January 1.

Exceptions to Basic Requirements:
The applicant may still qualify if the ownership and/or occupancy requirements stated above cannot be met due to any of the following reasons:
1) Title to the property is held by the spouse of the qualifying senior.
   a. The qualifying senior must meet the age and occupancy requirements stated above; and
   b. The spouse must occupy the property as his or her primary residence.
2) Title to the property is held in a trust solely for estate planning purposes.
   a. The name of the trust must be provided in the application.
   b. The names of the maker of the trust, the trustee, and the beneficiaries must also be provided in the application.
   c. To qualify, the maker of the trust must be the qualifying senior or spouse.
3) Title to the property is held in a corporate partnership or other legal entity solely for estate planning purposes.
   a. The name of the corporation or other legal entity must be provided in the application.
   b. The names of the principals must be provided in the application.
   c. To qualify, the qualifying senior or spouse must be a principal of the corporate partnership or legal entity.
4) The qualifying senior, spouse, or surviving spouse is/was confined to a hospital, nursing home, or assisted living facility.
   a. If not for confinement of the qualifying senior, the occupancy requirements have been enacted into law. See “Exceptions to Basic Requirements.”

Surviving Spouse of Previously Qualified Senior:
1) The surviving spouse must have been legally married to a senior who applied for and received the exemption, who met the age, occupancy and ownership requirements on January 1 of the year of application; and
2) The surviving spouse cannot have remarried; and
3) The surviving spouse must have occupied the residential real property with the qualifying senior as his or her primary residence and must still occupy the same property.
4) When a spouse who had received the exemption passes away, the surviving spouse must reapply in order for the exemption to continue.
THE APPLICATION
1) Notice of the availability of the senior property tax exemption must be mailed no later than May 1 of each year to the owners of all residential real property.
2) The notice must include the eligibility requirements and the instructions for obtaining an exemption application.
3) The completed application must be returned to the county assessor no later than July 15 of the first property tax year for which the exemption is claimed. An application returned by mail will be deemed filed on the date it is postmarked.
4) Completed exemption applications are confidential.
   a. County assessors and treasurers, the Property Tax Administrator, the State Treasurer, and the State Auditor may release statistical compilations or informational summaries of any information contained in exemption applications except that the social security numbers cannot be divulged.
   b. Copies of exemption applications may be used as evidence in any administrative hearing or legal proceeding in which the accuracy or veracity of the application is an issue so long as the applicants’ social security numbers are not divulged.
   c. None of the above parties may provide any other person with a listing of individuals who have applied for an exemption or provide any other information that would enable someone to easily assemble a mailing list of individuals who have applied for the exemption.

ASSESSOR’S REVIEW AND ACTION
1) The assessor can only grant an exemption to an individual who has timely filed an application establishing that the individual meets the exemption qualifications.
2) If the assessor determines that the applicant does not qualify, or if the information provided on the application is insufficient, the assessor will deny the application and mail a statement no later than August 15, explaining the reason(s) for denial.
3) The applicant may request a hearing before the county commissioners, and should file immediately after receiving the assessor’s decision to ensure a hearing being scheduled with the commissioners.
   a. The hearing must be held between September 1 and October 1.
   b. The County Commissioners’ decision is not subject to further administrative appeal by either the applicant or the Assessor.

PROPERTY TAX ADMINISTRATOR’S REVIEW AND ACTION
1) No later than October 10, each county assessor must file an annual report with the Property Tax Administrator (administrator) listing the exemptions allowed for the current year.
2) The administrator will review the reports to determine whether or not any applicants have claimed more than one exemption in Colorado.
3) By November 1, the administrator will notify those applicants who have claimed more than one exemption that they are not entitled to any exemption.
4) The applicants may file a written protest with the administrator no later than November 15.
   a. The sole ground for the protest is that the applicant filed only one claim for an exemption.
   b. The protest must specify the property or properties upon which no exemption was claimed.
   c. The administrator shall request copies of the applications from the appropriate assessor(s).
   d. If the protest is denied, the administrator must provide a written statement of the basis for the denial and a copy of each exemption application filed with an assessor. Applicants have the right of appeal to the Board of Assessment Appeals within 30 days of the date of the administrator’s decision, 39-2-125(1)(b), C.R.S.
5) The administrator will provide assessors with written notices of denials so that the exemptions can be removed.

PENALTIES
False Information or Multiple Applications: In addition to any penalties prescribed by law for perjury in the second degree, the applicant who knowingly provides false information on an exemption application or files more than one exemption application in any given year:
   1) Shall not be entitled to an exemption;
   2) Shall be required to pay an amount equal to the amount of property taxes that would have been paid as a result of the exemption being improperly allowed; and
   3) Shall, upon conviction of perjury, be required to pay an additional amount equal to twice the amount of the property taxes that would have been exempted had the application been valid, plus interest. Interest will be calculated pursuant to 39-21-110.5(2) & (3), C.R.S., from the date on which the change in ownership or occupancy occurred until the date the applicant makes the payment.

4) The penalty described in numbers two and three above, shall be deemed part of the lien of general taxes imposed on the person found responsible for its payment. It shall have the priority specified in 39-1-107(2), C.R.S.

Failure to Inform the Assessor of any Change: Within 60 days of its occurrence, the assessor must be notified of any change in the property’s ownership or occupancy that would result in a loss of the exemption. If the assessor is not notified of the change, the following penalties will be imposed:
   1) The exemption will not be allowed; and
   2) The applicant or trustee will be required to pay an amount equal to the amount of property taxes not paid as a result of the exemption being improperly allowed plus interest. Interest will be calculated pursuant to 39-21-110.5(2) & (3), C.R.S., from the date on which the change in ownership or occupancy occurred until the date the applicant makes the payment.

REIMBURSEMENT OF LOST REVENUE
1) By April 1 of each year, county treasurers will send a report to the State Treasurer listing the amount of property tax revenue attributable to each governmental entity that will not be collected due to the senior property tax exemption program.
2) By April 15 of each year, the State Treasurer will reimburse each county treasurer for the lost revenue.
3) County treasurers will distribute the reimbursed revenue to each governmental entity.
