Subject: Officer Involved Shooting
Date: 7/29/21

On Wednesday, 7/28/2021, at about 10 p.m., the Larimer County Sheriff's Office received a report of a suspected drunk driver in Berthoud. Ten minutes later, the driver and deputies exchanged gunfire at 2nd Street and Welch Avenue. All deputies are uninjured. The driver was transported to an area hospital and is currently receiving treatment. The 8th Judicial District Critical Incident Response Team (CIRT) has been activated to investigate the incident. The Loveland Police Department will be leading the investigation and all further information related to it will be released by PIO Tom Hacker.
